CIRCULAR HIKE THROUGH THE BÄRGUNTTAL

MEDIUM HIKING

TOUR DESCRIPTION

From the Baad bus stop, a wide alpine path leads gently ascending along the Bärguntbach up to the managed Bärgunt hut. From there, the return path leads down a panoramic trail on the other side of the stream at the foot of the Widderstein to the managed Widdersteinalpe. FURTHER INFO & LINKS

Tips
Bring binoculars and watch out for chamois and ibex on the rocks!
This easy circular hike leads to two GenussHütten, which are suitable for a cozy stop. On this occasion, the hut keepers are happy to tell you something about the philosophy of alpine farming: where the fresh products of meat and milk come from, why a close relationship with their producers is important to them, and what the designation as an Austrian “GenussHütte” means. All of this with a view of the sensational mountain panorama of the hinter Kleinwalsertal.

Further links
The Bärgunttal is a valley with history: it was already traversed by hunters and gatherers in the Stone Age. When the Kleinwalsertal was settled in the late Middle Ages, the Tannberg and thus the Bärgunttal was probably the most important access route.
